(10) Any other information which a standing committee in its discretion feels is necessary and proper in performing its review and evaluation duties.

Attached is a copy of the Department's list of numerous reports that are due to the Legislature either by statute, resolution, or executive order. This extensive list is provided in order that the Legislature may review and evaluate the reports currently required of the Department.