MISSISSIPPI RIVER BRIDGE
AT BATON ROUGE

On August 30, 1930, the world's most mighty bridge over the Mississippi River in Louisiana was opened to the world's million-shared public. The bridge, a structural marvel, connects the states of Mississippi and Louisiana. It is a testament to human ingenuity and the spirit of progress.

GENERAL INFORMATION ON NEW ORLEANS

WHAT TO SEE IN NEW ORLEANS

SUGGESTED SHORT MOTOR TOURS

That you might follow best to see Louisiana's scenic beauty and points of historic interest.

TOUR No. 1

Laying New Orleans on the Atlantic Old Spanish Trail you cross the Mississippi Bridge, the might of the world and pass through Bladon and down along the shores of Lake Pontchartrain and into Lake dough and over Plaquemine Coulee and into Baton Rouge, the second city in the State. This magnificent highway, a veritable cathedral of engineering, crosses the mighty Mississippi, which is transformed into a river of molten steel. A bridge of steel and concrete, it is a marvel of human achievement, a triumph of the American spirit.

TOUR No. 2

This delightful tour takes you out of the city and into the country, where you will find the best of Louisiana's scenic beauty. You will pass through the picturesque town of Maryville, where you will see the magnificent St. Francis Xavier Cathedral, the oldest church in the State. You will also see the beautiful Pointe Coupee Parish, where you will find the famous Oak Alley Plantation, a veritable garden of trees.

TOUR No. 3

This tour takes you out of the city and into the country, where you will find the best of Louisiana's scenic beauty. You will pass through the picturesque town of Maryville, where you will see the magnificent St. Francis Xavier Cathedral, the oldest church in the State. You will also see the beautiful Pointe Coupee Parish, where you will find the famous Oak Alley Plantation, a veritable garden of trees.

TOUR No. 4

The Acadian highway, which leads from New Orleans to Mobile, Alabama, is a veritable picturesque of Louisiana's scenic beauty. You will see the charming town of Breaux Bridge, where you will find the famous Acadian Village, a veritable garden of trees.

TOUR No. 5

The Old Spanish Trail from New Orleans to Mobile, Alabama, is a veritable picturesque of Louisiana's scenic beauty. You will see the charming town of Breaux Bridge, where you will find the famous Acadian Village, a veritable garden of trees.

TOUR No. 6

This tour takes you on a tour of the historic sites of New Orleans, including the famous St. Louis Cathedral, the oldest cathedral in the United States, and the famous Presbytere Museum, which houses the world's largest collection of French Colonial art.

TOUR No. 7

This tour takes you on a tour of the historic sites of New Orleans, including the famous St. Louis Cathedral, the oldest cathedral in the United States, and the famous Presbytere Museum, which houses the world's largest collection of French Colonial art.

TOUR No. 8

This tour takes you on a tour of the historic sites of New Orleans, including the famous St. Louis Cathedral, the oldest cathedral in the United States, and the famous Presbytere Museum, which houses the world's largest collection of French Colonial art.

TOUR No. 9

This tour takes you on a tour of the historic sites of New Orleans, including the famous St. Louis Cathedral, the oldest cathedral in the United States, and the famous Presbytere Museum, which houses the world's largest collection of French Colonial art.

TOUR No. 10

This tour takes you on a tour of the historic sites of New Orleans, including the famous St. Louis Cathedral, the oldest cathedral in the United States, and the famous Presbytere Museum, which houses the world's largest collection of French Colonial art.

TOUR No. 11

The City of Lake Charles has taken its place as one of the important ports of the country, shipping such diverse goods as fish, shrimp, and oysters, as well as fresh fruits and vegetables, along with oil and gas products. The city is a paradise for sportsmen, with its many lakes and streams offering excellent opportunities for fishing, boating, and swimming. It is also a center for cultural activities, with its many museums and art galleries.